II. RECREATION PROGRAMMING UPDATES

Staff Contact: David Lopez

Summer Softball League Playoffs

The Kyle Parks and Recreation Department hosted the COED Softball League playoffs August 27. The summer season welcomed a total of 9 teams with over 100 participants for the season. The summer season winners are the Regulators Kickers!

Kyle Knighthawks Prepare for Special Olympics

The Kyle Knighthawks, PARD's dedicated swim team, are in the final stages of preparing for Our Special Olympics Swim Team. The team of 7 will compete on September 15. GO KNIGHTHAWKS!

James Adkins Pool Closed for Season

The James Adkins Pool is now closed for the season. During the off-season, the department will complete essential maintenance and improvements to ensure optimal operation for next season including repairs to the pump room and filtration system, a thorough deep clean, and winterization. We appreciate your understanding and patience as we complete these necessary upgrades and look forward to welcoming you back for the next season. But join us on September 14 at 10 a.m. at the James Adkins Pool for a tail-wagging good time at our annual Doggie Dip. Learn more at www.cityofkyle.com/recreation/page/doggie-dip-james-adkins-pool-1.

III. PARK PROJECT UPDATES

Staff Contact: David Lopez

The City of Kyle's Beautification Department has entered into a contract with Kyle Landscaping Services for supplemental mowing and litter pickup of the City's I-35 Corridors. The contract will also be utilized by the Code Enforcement Department for assistance with property issues.
